Log Cabin Café & General Store receives MULTI Grant

Greene County's latest MULTI Grant awardees Paul & Erin Alfeld of the Log Cabin Café & General Store in Purling welcomed business and community leaders and friends to an 'official' presentation gathering on Tuesday, March 19th. Their Greene County Legislators Harry Lennon (left) and Sherry True (right) were also joined by Legislator Patty Handel from Durham, and GCEDC Chairman Mark Maraglio of the National Bank of Cossackie. All touted the popularity of this family business with both visitors and residents. The Alfeld's MULTI Grant award enabled them to invest in new kitchen equipment and inventory to expand the offerings of the General Store. <https://www.logcabincafeandgeneralstore.com>

Pasta Shop Off to a Great Start in Cossackie

Via Ravioli, a specialty pasta shop opened its doors at 11865 Route 9W in Cossackie on March 6th. The shop is run by husband and wife duo Steve Gonzalez and Kate Galassi. Gonzalez was the pasta-maker-in-chief for Sfoglini Pasta.

After more than 10 years, he decided to move on and open up his own pasta shop. The couple spent five months renovating the space and with the help of a $25,000 MULTI Grant from Greene County EDC, they were able to purchase the necessary equipment to complete the kitchen. <https://www.news10.com/community/restaurant-rundown/fresh-pasta-shop-via-ravioli-opens-in-coxsackie/>

Scribner's Debuts New Cabins

Escape Hospitality has announced the opening of The Rounds at Scribner's, a collection of 11 cabins designed by Wyoming-based firm Post Company. The 12-sided structures offer modernized cabin life lodging, nestled amid pine trees and mountains. Presenting 11 wood-wrapped configurations, available in two layouts—a standard that sleeps up to four and a suite accommodating up to five—each Round is bathed in natural light, with vaulted pantheon ceilings and a central oculus, perfect for stargazing.
