ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Greene County Economic Development Contributes to Long Term Care Panel

GCEDC Executive Director, James Hannahs, contributed to a regional panel discussion on Long Term Care options across both Greene and Columbia Counties held at Columbia Greene Community College. Other panelists included transit directors, aging officials, and housing coordinators representing both Counties. The panel presented valuable insight and information to help create mutual understanding of the challenges facing both counties while learning about available resources to families and individuals requiring easier access to long-term-care support resources.

CEG Manufacturing Extension Partnership Event

The Center for Economic Growth will host a special workshop on Thursday, June 15th from 8am to 9:30am at C-GCC for small to mid-sized manufacturers to learn more about available resources. Their mission is to provide growth and innovation services to create and retain jobs, increase profits, and enable manufacturers to save time and money.

TOURISM

Tourism Advisory Committee Meeting at Hunter Lodge

The Great Northern Catskills of Greene County Tourism Department along with Workshop presented the 2023 Tourism Marketing Plan. Each member was also given copies of the newest tourism collateral, including the 2023 Travel Guide and Vacation Map. After the meeting the manager of the Hunter Lodge, Bluebird by Lark, gave a tour of the recently renovated hotel and tavern. The Hunter Lodge combines sophisticated ski lodge vibes with spacious rooms and plenty of outdoor space. Ideal for a ski getaway to Hunter Mountain or an idyllic family getaway in the summer, complete with roaring fireplaces, clean alpine-inspired design, and balcony rooms for easy outdoor access.
