Essay:

Focusing on scholarship, service, sacrifice and honor aligns with the contributions our veterans make to our great nation. It's a powerful reminder of how we, as a society, can step up and give back. Many veterans have achieved so much while serving their country proudly. With these qualities in mind, please attach a reflective essay on how you have exhibited these qualities in your personal and academic life, or how you will model them through your chosen career path using the template/guidelines below.

Introduction

- Briefly introduce yourself and your connection to the topic.
- Highlight the importance of the themes (scholarship, service, sacrifice, honor) and their relevance to your life and experiences.

Body Paragraph 1: Scholarship

- Define what scholarship means to you personally.
- Share how educational opportunities have impacted your life or will help shape your future goals.
- Discuss the value of pursuing knowledge and academic excellence.

Body Paragraph 2: Service

- Reflect on the significance of service and how it contributes to the greater good.
- Share any personal experiences or examples of community service or volunteerism.
- Connect your understanding of service to the legacy of veterans and their contributions.

Body Paragraph 3: Sacrifice

- Explore the concept of sacrifice, particularly in the context of military service.
- Share personal or family stories related to sacrifice, if applicable.
- Discuss how recognizing sacrifice inspires you in your own life.

Body Paragraph 4: Honor

- Define what honor means to you and why it is essential in your values and actions.
- Share examples of how honor shapes the way you view and interact with others.
- Connect the idea of honor to the sacrifices made by servicemembers and their families.

Conclusion

- Summarize the key points you've covered in your essay.
- Reflect on how these themes collectively inspire you to make a positive impact in the world.
- End with a forward-looking statement about how you hope to uphold these values in your life and future endeavors.

Your essay must be between 300-500 words and may be handwritten or typed.
